Effective Decorations for the Occasion at the Executive Mansion.

WASHINGTON, May 20,-A day perfect in every respect greeted the spanish royal party this morning. The Princess Eulalia enjoyed a good night's rest, and at according to the Spanish cus-before leaving her bed had cup of chocolate and biscuit. At 9.50 she got up and began to prepare for the official call upon the President and Mrs. Cleveland, until which time she was not known, officially, to be in the city. The arrangements made last night by Secretary Gresham fixed the hour for this call at 11 o'clock, and five minutes before that time two handsome carriages drove up to the Summer annex of the Arlington.

A pink satin girdle completed this exquisite toilet. Her bonnet was a small affair or light nowers with pink sath ribbons tied under the chin, and a short white net veil over her face. In her hand she carried a beautiful parasol of chiffon and lace.

As soon as the carriages started towards the White House the crowd broke and ran through the park in that direction to witness the arrival of the distinguished party. A running crowd of well-dressed women and small boys heralded the approach of the Infanta and her party to the White House. When the carriage came to a standstill un-

When the carriage came to a standstill under the broad, high portice, Commander Davis alighted first, followed by the Spanish Minister and Prince Antoine. The Prince assisted the Princess to alight, and at the suggestion of Commander Davis, in answer to an inquiry from the Infanta, offered her his arm, and excepted her through the main doorway into the corridor of the private part of the mansion. The Duke, the Marchioness and the private Secretary to the Princess followed.

The party will remain in Washington until Thursday when the return to New York will be made.

During the Princess's visit to the President she was invited to dine at the White Housenext Tuesday evening and accepted the invitation very graciously.

The President has invited the members of the Cabinet and their ladies, the Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States and their wives and some members of the Diplomatte Corps to meet the Princess at the Tuesday evening dinner.

Mrs. Cleveland went to return the call of the Spanish Princess at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The President's wife was accompanied by Mrs. Carlisle, Mrs. Lamont and other ladies of the Cabinet, and by Col. John Wilson, the President's military side.
